

I feel that I should not have to be invaded in my home by unwanted calls by solicitors. If I want a product or information I will seek it out. It is a pleasure being on the do not call list and not being bothered at all hours of every day.